The Trades Assembly Arbitration Committee Takes a Hand and

CONFERRED WITH ELM GROVE

Management Last Night—The Result is a Special Meeting of the Elm Grove Employees, Called for 9 O'clock this Morning, at which the Arbitration Committee will Report on its Conference with the Management.

The arbitration committee of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly, to which was delegated the handling of the men's interests in the strike on the Wheeling & Elm Grove railroad, lost no time in getting at its work after the special meeting of the trades assembly last night. The assembly adjourned at 9:40 o'clock, and twenty minutes later Chairman Duffy and his fellow committeemen were in conference with General Manager Wright at the Elm Grove offices on Sixteenth street.

Two conferences were held, and although the proceedings are not known definitely, it is known that Mr. Wright was unable to look with favor upon the committee's proposition that he grant the men the wage scale they struck for—twenty cents an hour. He stuck to his previous offer of eighteen cents an hour.

The committee reported back to the Elm Grove men at a hastily called meeting held at midnight in the trades assembly hall. At this meeting of the men it is learned that they made a counter proposition that the management pay eighteen cents an hour until June 1, 1899, after which the rate should advance to twenty cents per hour. This proposition was placed before Mr. Wright, but it is said he replied that his company could not concede twenty cents an hour under present conditions.

Being unable to reach an agreement last night, it was decided that the Elm Grove striking operators and conductors would meet this morning at 9 o'clock in trades assembly hall, at which the arbitration committee undertakes that all the members of the local union shall be present, when it is hoped that the good offices of the arbitration committee will result in an amicable settlement of the existing differences.

The public will learn with satisfaction of an amicable settlement this morning, if one is possible.

THE ELM GROVE STRIKE.

The men went out Saturday Morning—Cars were run Sunday.

As exclusively chronicled in Saturday's Intelligencer, the motemen and conductors of the Wheeling & Elm Grove electric line, declined the concession of two cents on the hour, made by General Manager Wright at 4 o'clock that morning, after several conferences between the management and men, whereupon negotiations were declared off, and a strike was inaugurated.

The men conducted themselves in a manner that was to their credit, no attempt being made to interfere with the company's efforts to operate the road on Saturday and Sunday. In fact, the men passed a strong resolution, declaring themselves against any lawlessness or violence of any character.

The road was operated in a spasmodic way Saturday. Three cars were run during the day. General Manager Wright, Secretary Carle and James Beane, the electrician of the Suburban Light Company, were impressed into service on the cars. The company ran four cars on Sunday, but they stopped for the day at 6 p. m. The report that Mr. Paul O. Reymann was handling a conductor's punch on one of the cars was not true.

General Manager Wright announced last night that the road would be in operation to-day, and that the regular schedule would be followed. The first car will leave the city for the Grove at 5:45 a. m. Four cars, it is announced, will be run through the day.

The Elm Grove men are disappointed at the action of the president of their national organization, W. D. Mahon, of Detroit, in failing to come to Wheeling Friday night. Upon the expiration of their ultimatum to the company he should have been here, but he has not turned up yet, and the result is that the men have placed the conduct of their strike in the hands of the arbitration committee of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly. As detailed elsewhere, this committee was in conference with Manager Wright last night and early this morning.

The striking Elm Grove men are running a wagon and bus service from the city to Pleasant Valley and return. They announce that early wagons will be run this morning for the benefit of the working people out of the pike.

The Elm Grove men meet every afternoon at Trades Assembly hall.

WHEELING COMPANY'S MEN

Met Sunday Morning and Will Issue an Ultimatum To-day.

The motemen and conductors of the Wheeling Railway Company's Wheeling, Bridgeport and Martin's Ferry lines met early yesterday morning, at Nolte's hall, South Side, and decided that they would present their demand for increased wages to the management this morning, accompanied by an ultimatum, which, it is said, will give the company three days in which to reply to the demand.

The employees on this road were dissatisfied by the action of the management in refusing to receive the request last week, and it is said the committee delegated to wait on the company will simply leave the request and ultimatum at the office.

It may be that the Wheeling company's men will not strike immediately upon the company's refusal to grant their demands. It is said they will wait until the president of their national organization, Mr. Mahon, can come to Wheeling, and endeavor to affect a settlement amicably. President Mahon is now at Cleveland or Akron, where he is engaged in organizing street car unions. It is confidently expected he will be here this week.

TRADES ASSEMBLY ACTS.

Refers Settlement of the Elm Grove Strike to Arbitration Committee.

The Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly met in special session last night at 8 o'clock, with the striking Wheeling & Elm Grove employees, for the purpose of considering the men's grievances.

The secretary read a statement of the men's grievances, which detailed the lowering of the wages from $2 to $1 44 a day when the road was run by steam, and stated the efforts already made by the men to secure the increase in wages from sixteen to twenty cents per hour, which had proved unsuccessful. In conclusion, the men place their case in the hands of the trades assembly.

A delegate said the assembly should move cautiously. Under innate characterization the action of the street car men and the trades assembly on the occasion of the 1893 strike, and a lesson should be learned from the past. If taken up by the assembly's arbitration committee, they should agree to stand by its decision. The delegate moved that the matter be referred to the arbitration committee of the assembly.

Another delegate explained the several developments that ended in the Elm Grove men going on strike Saturday morning. It was stated the men had confidently expected the head of their national organization here on Friday night when the ultimatum to the company expired; when he did not appear, the situation was such that the men could do nothing but go out on strike. It was either a strike or giving up the demands that had been made.

The chairman of the arbitration committee explained the situation as they are to give the assembly's arbitration committee full and complete power to settle the difficulty, even, possibly, at a lower rate of wages than is now demanded.

Another delegate expressed his belief that the strike would be a short struggle now that the trades assembly is to take a hand. There should be a conservative conduct of this strike, so that the repetition of the disastrous strike of 1893 on the Wheeling Company's line would not be had now. The strike of 1893 was ill-advised; "this is a strike for a living wage." At all times the men must remember to use only peaceful methods in the conduct of their strike; the assembly would countenance no violence of any kind.

The motion placing the strike in the hands of the assembly's arbitration committee was passed with no opposition. The committee, it was stated, would call upon the management of the Wheeling & Elm Grove Company immediately after the meeting.

BELMONT TRADES COUNCIL

Meets on Sunday Afternoon and Transacts Routine Business.

The Belmont Central Trades & Labor Union met at Odd Fellows' hall, at Belaire, yesterday afternoon, in regular session, with President Kunkel presiding, and Secretary Smith at the desk. John Cecil was appointed temporary vice president. Roll was called and quite a number of delegates were absent. Minutes of two previous meetings were read by the secretary and adopted.

Credentials from the Belaire and Bridgeport Typographical Union were read, certifying that C. W. Berry and James Hamsley had been appointed delegates to represent that union. The delegates were obligated.

J. T. Parsons, of the organization committee, made a report of the circumstances of the organizing of a blacksmith's union in the Martins Ferry, and the matter was laid upon the table.

A communication was received from the Belmont Barbers' Union, of Martin's Ferry, referring to a man starting a shop before serving his three years' apprenticeship; the matter was referred to the arbitration committee.

The motion was made to communicate from the table that was received from the secretary of the Federation of Labor, some time ago, referring to the conduct of Thomas Lewis and Delegate Jones in presenting alleged packed credentials at the convention held in Zanesville. The matter was discussed at length and the secretary was instructed to write to the secretary of the Federation of Labor and ask the credentials presented by Messrs. Lewis and Jones; also the packed credentials presented by delegates from the Toledo district.

The secretary was instructed to correspond with all locals, requesting them to send new delegates when the terms of the old ones expire.

The secretary was instructed to learn whether the Ohio-side street car men are organized.

Bills amounting to $13.50 were ordered paid, after which the meeting adjourned to meet again April 16.
